How do you spend a hundred and thirty thousand on a Challenger?

Big dog, I'm a real problem, you niggas little puppies
Big swagger, bag mash, we be all lovey-dovey

She kneel to my feet, but bitches sneaky, you would never know
He done put the people in the beef, I still can't let it go
Ain't losing no sleep, but if I did, I ain't gon' let it show
I planted my seeds in the streets and I just let it grow

Had to double down, a hundred rounds, I'm super cautious
I preach to the streets, they pay me cash, I'm taking offers
I'm on all they ass, I'm sitting back, I'm taking off
So much Hermes, I can tell you if they fake or nah

Good relationships with all the plugs, I try to never owe them
Had to switch it up, give up my phones, so they can keep it going Blicky kind of shy, don't take it off, you know I keep it on Watch me shake the world and wake up everyone who is sleeping on me
Had to cut my blood off, too many people leaching on me
Paranoid, I see strange cars and get to reaching for it
I'm from where you turn into the plug you get a decent number
Disappointed, they acting disloyal, I keep it one hundred
It's a process, long as I'm in charge, just know you coming home
Rock hella stones, used to come up short, but now my money long, won't tell them wrong
This shit ain't no game, you can't get back, them boys forever gone
Too many dead contacts in my telephone

You did what I did and you ain't have shit, then you supposed to pop it
Could've moved to LA and left everybody
Spent a quarter milli' on a Richard since they all watching
