

Lil Baby, Global

Bought a baby Gucci stroller Stroller
Switched up and I went global Global
Can't play around, I had to grow up Grow up
Check out my neck, hell of a glow up Glow up
These niggas cappin' that shit blow up
My dog rappin', hope he blow up
I need my checks without no hold-ups
I put my city on my shoulders
I told the truth in every story that I told 'em
I fucked around and showed 'em

All of my whips, got that new car smell
Don't get it twisted from them apartments, I just talk well
I don't fuck with him, that nigga flossin' in the voicemail
Catch up with him, push up on him, tell him how I feel
Made myself a millionaire, only took a year, dog
Thinkin' bout what I've been through, I could make a tear fall
Late night with them youngins, who was creepin', could of killed y'all
I don't do that internet beef, that's for bitches, dog
I went up to space so they hatin', they can't lift off
I can make your bitch eat my kids, every drip drop
I come from the trenches, we can't come outside in flip flops
I done came so far, sittin' on the floor, watchin' the tip off

Whenever they call, I let him hear it
Them lawyers and God, gon' lift they spirits
