You stressin me (you stressin me girl)

Cause I ain't rich you think less of me (you think less of me)

And we ain't gotta take the test to see

You need to change yo ways so you can see the best of me

Baby momma baby momma

You lied to me (you lied)

A good man I tried to be (I tried)

You do me wrong even the blind can see

That's why I got another woman on the side of me

And she gon love me better (yea)

Fuck me better warm me up up in the coldest weather

She bout whatever you heard me

Baby momma baby momma I trusted you

It was so good I left it in when I made love to you

[Chorus]

ľm askin

Why you cryin girl?

Why you be lyin girl?

Why you won't shine girl?

On the stretch you know it's mine girl

Im askin

Why you have a baby?

Just to drive me crazy?

Why you be actin shady?

When you posed to be my lady

[Verse]

Baby momma baby momma

Thought you love me hoe? (thought you love me hoe)

But you won't put a child on child support

And you don't even want my child to know

That it ain't daddy it's his mama who wildin' tho

Baby momma baby momma

You jealous of me

You don't even want the fellas wit me (my niggaz)

And you keep on telling me

To slow my role but behind you I'm catchin' felonies

Baby momma baby momma

Where the love done went? (where the luv done went)

Don't wanna leave you cuz I love ya scent (ya smell)

The names I call you ain't really meant

But I'm tired of all these fightin's and arguments

Besides we grown not no mo teenagers

So you can stop playin them games tryna check my pager

You need to get ya mind right if not I'll see you later

You posed to take my side but you listen to the hatas (damn)

[Chorus] I'm askin

IIII askiii

Why you cryin girl?

Why you be lyin girl?

Why you won't shine girl?

On the stretch you know it's mine girl I'm askin

Just to drive me crazy?
Why you be actin shady?
When you posed to be my lady

I'm tryna get back on my team

Cause you heard I had a major plug on prementhazime bitch please

Baby momma look what I did for you (look what I did)

I took you places that you never knew (you ain't even know that)

I bought you any kind of tennis shoe

If I thought I wouldn't gon make it I'll finish you (blaw)
