

Lil' Bow Wow, My Baby Ft. Jagged Edge

It was the summer 2001
All before the drama begun
When we first met
I seen you sitting out on your steps
You was broke down cryiny a mess
So I interferred
I asked what's the reason for tears
I was wishing you could tell me your me fears
But Ill start with ya name
You told me how ya man playin games
So I said that it was time for a change
And you just laughed
But it looked like you ain't laughed in while
I was glad that I could give you a smile
Then we both blushed
But really girl it ain't no rush
I was thinkng girl that we can discuss
A futre for us
Cause homeboy just got you crushed
You need to leave that clown in the dust
Trust
I just wanna talk
I'm thinking I can give you a call
And we pick it up
Where we left off
I'll holla tomarrow

Girl I understand you loyal to ya man
And that's alright, aww baby
But that don't change the fact
That you fine and stay crying every night, nah baby
Girl you got to let him know
You can't live like this no more
oh baby
Can't see
Together you and me could be so special baby

Our feelings get greater
A million days later
Taking all night we stay up but
Here comes ya ex
Returned with that drama and stress
All the nonsense that you just left but yet
You except and go back to try it again
Then return with a broken heart
That I gotta mend
That's unfair
I've only been your lover and friend
And homey there he just front and pretend
But you don't care the life he leads
Is unsafe
I would never place my handsto your face
But still I chase
Cat and mouse
First you kick him out
Then you at his house
What is that about
I can't figure you out
Even your friend said I was better
But you listen to him
Never like uh-uh whatever
So the next time hurt you again
You already knew where you should've been

And that's with me

All the times
You 2 way telling me
That you miss me
Wanting me to come over and keep you busy
Remember that
Now that you gone
It's been kinda hard
Can't think, can't sleep
Can't do nothing at all
Just tell me why you had to go back
See you ain't have to go through that
My baby
You could've been here right by my side
Me and you at the park taking walks outside
But
Instead, I keep on having these dreams
Waiting for my phone to ring
My baby wishing that it would be you
But I know that wont come true
