

Lil Eddie, Now or never

[Part 1:]

I like ya cause youre marchin to the beat of your own drum
Got a glow to you like no other chick, cant really know it hardly
Now we aint come here together but if you leave Ill be fed up
My chance is right here tonight now or never, now or never | Now or never, now or never
Cant understand why out of all places Im here tonight
The only reason that makes sense is you girl cause I didnt step out to meet anyone
But you are a must, must, you make me have to catch my breath
The way youre lookin so sexy, you know what youre doin
Your walk, label look classy and youre sassy, she can pull anything off
Cant help but to bein mad but Im also full of romance
Got a lot of things but I must admit what Im missin is you

[Chorus:]

I like ya cause youre marchin to the beat of your own drum
Got a glow to you like no other chick, cant really know it hardly
Now we aint come here together but if you leave Ill be fed up
My chance is right here tonight now or never, now or never
Trophies like and I would pick up once
So I gotta skip the bases and go straight for the homerun girl
You make a man step his game up | So if Ima have to Ill chase ya

[Part 2:]

The DJs got the crowd on the floor, hes packin it left to right
But its like the whole room is empty cause all I see is your light
Girl beamin all through this dark cloud
So hard not to touch, touch | Its time I quit the base steps
Gotta think of a more clever way, cant act out whats in my head
That would be a little to a trade, dont need a drink thrown in my face
Cant help but to bein mad but Im also full of romance
Got a lot of things but I must admit what Im missin is you

[Chorus:]

I like ya cause youre marchin to the beat of your own drum
Got a glow to you like no other chick, cant really know it hardly
Now we aint come here together but if you leave Ill be fed up
My chance is right here tonight now or never, now or never
Trophies like and I would pick up once
So I gotta skip the bases and go straight for the homerun girl
You make a man step his game up | So if Ima have to Ill chase ya
My chance is right here tonight now or never, now or never

[Brigde:]

How, (how), could someone like you be alone, (alone)?
(Almost seems youre too good to be true)
But I know, (know), what it feels like to wanna hold

[Chorus:]

I like ya cause youre marchin to the beat of your own drum
Got a glow to you like no other chick, cant really know it hardly
Now we aint come here together but if you leave Ill be fed up
My chance is right here tonight now or never, now or never
Trophies like and I would pick up once
So I gotta skip the bases and go straight for the homerun girl
You make a man step his game up | So if Ima have to Ill chase ya
My chance is right here tonight now or never, now or never
Tonight or now or never
