

Lil Peep & I Love Makonnen, I've Been Waiting (ft.

I've Been Waiting
I've Been Waiting
I've Been Waiting up 'cause i can;t get enough I feel I am fading
when I fall apart
you needle starts my heart

fuck me up and make me just go crazy
addicted to the pain that you just made me love
I am dreaming for your touching on the daily you're the only one that I want

break my heart but don't tell me I'm not doing fine cause I will do it fine
let me go
I am spending time
not doing fine but I'll do it fine

why you acting vain for my love
wain for my love
when you got everything that I want?
why you acting vain for my blood
wain for my blood
when you got everything that I want?

I been dreaming'
of your uniform
your uniform of non-conformity the tears, the tears tears aren't strong enough the years aren't long enough, no!

it's hard to miss you
when you're always on the tip of my tongue
I feel like I am looking for something something that'll never come

call me when you're in the city again my hair just went oblivion
always on the tip of my tongue and now the time is right

now the time is right
long for you

I wanna drink my wine
I wanna pass tat by
I wanna make her cry
she wanna make me die
apple pie, 6 cigarettes and I'll cast a vibe that we can't forget
