

Lil Peep, Runaway

For my passionate,
hard-working,
and talented son, Gus.
And for his alter ego,
Lil Peep.
- Liza

runaway from here
everybody so fake
everybody so fake
I swear
I don't wanna go back there

take me away from here
everybody so fake
everybody so fake
I swear

everybody act like they care
take me away from here
everybody so fake
I swear

but I don't wanna go back there

why the fuck everybody act like they care I was dying and nobody was there
please don't cry
baby, life ain't fair

I run away from my problems I do the drugs when I want them I ran away from my momma don't bother me with no drama

now I;m looking for a ghost girl I ain;t never gonna find her pain pills with my cake, girl you know I gotta get high first

you were everything I know, girl ain't it funny how life work

I swear

I swear
