

Lil Rob, Bluffin

What's happenin' perro?
It's been a long time since I've felt this way
But I could put that shit down homeboy, you know?
Ain't nothing changed
Watcha

I creep around the corner three wheel in this scrapin' bumper
Breakin' up the calles leavin' you blind like Stevie Wonder
Said I come from the land down under, underground stupid
What the fuck you think I meant? Let me think of it, can't think of it
Can't think of shit, fuck it ey, Lil Rob can rap like fuckin' a
How did I learn to bust this way? How in the fuck will I bust today?
Never had nobody writin' my shit that's fakin' it like lyin' and shit
You didn't write it, how could you claim somebody's buyin' your shit?
It doesn't make sense to me, everybody wanna be in the place to be
Like it's the place to be I guess it is, shit is the place for me
So I'm gonna stay as long as I can
Pen and the paper and out with the plan
Put down some beats then back to the streets
Everyone knows Lil Rob is the man

I think you're bluffin'
They're bluffin', they're bluffin'
They're bluffin', they're bluffin'
They're bluffin', these vatos ain't bout nothin'
Bitch I think you're bluffin'
They're bluffin', they're bluffin'
They're bluffin', they're bluffin'
They're bluffin', I think this time they're bluffin'

I'm a good dude that did bad, can't believe I did that
Gimmie a big bag of some feel good, roll it up in a zig-zag
Take a big drag, I smoke till I see pitch black, black out and pass out
Wake up in a few, drink a beer then I crash out
Laugh loud when you lash out with your loud mouth, whatchu mad about?
Talk a lot of shit ain't got no heart, all you got is a bad mouth
I bark don't bite I'll talk no fight, shut the fuck up, put down the mic
Thinkin' you're bad 'cause you're not polite
Ese you're weak like your name in the streets
You can't compete, who said that you could?
You're a disgrace to your whole neighborhood
Your hood doesn't care, 'cause you're not from there, me against you?
That wouldn't be fair, c'mon homie let's keep it real
You're just a man, you're not made of steel
You could be taken out and that's without a doubt
I'm givin you somethin' to think about

I think you're bluffin'
They're bluffin', they're bluffin'
They're bluffin', they're bluffin'
They're bluffin', these vatos ain't bout nothin'
Bitch I think you're bluffin'
They're bluffin', they're bluffin'
They're bluffin', they're bluffin'
They're bluffin', I think this time they're bluffin'

We live life rough and tough, some end up gettin' stuck
I think I've had enough, it's time for me to call your bluff
We live life rough and tough, some end up gettin' snuffed
And you ain't strong enough
So now it's time to put on my black boots and my black Davis'
That's just the way it is
No one can see me throw on my black sweatshirt with the black beanie
And a black bandana to cover my face just like a bandit does

I'm back motherfuckers and I'm bouts to get scandalous
I pull my crimes at night and disappear like a phantom does
I'll fuck up your life like a junkie slammin' drugs
Even your fuckin' wife knows that you're a fuckin' punk
Whatchu gonna do when I call your bluff?
Can't believe that you think you're tough
You claim to talk the talk, you claim to walk the walk
If that's true then my body shoulda been outlined in chalk but it's not
(That's bullshit)
You really need to stop, don't say what you won't do
You really need to stop homeboy before I lose my cool

I think you're bluffin'
They're bluffin', they're bluffin'
They're bluffin', they're bluffin'
They're bluffin', these vatos ain't bout nothin'
Bitch I think you're bluffin'
They're bluffin', they're bluffin'
They're bluffin', they're bluffin'
They're bluffin', I think this time they're bluffin'

I think you're bluffin'
They're bluffin', they're bluffin'
They're bluffin', they're bluffin'
They're bluffin', these vatos ain't bout nothin'
Bitch I think you're bluffin'
They're bluffin', they're bluffin'
They're bluffin', they're bluffin'
They're bluffin', I think this time they're bluffin'
