Lil' Rob, Rumors

(Steve Austin)

Hi this is Steve Austin reporting live from San Diego, California

I'm here with two controversial rappers from the city

Lil' Rob and Mr. Shadow aka the Mayhem Click

And we're talking about rumors

Now Lil' Rob we understand you have an album out called The Crazy Life Can you tell us some of the rumors that have emerged since the release Of that album, and some of the things you've been through

(Lil' Rob)

Well let me put it like this all these fools talking shit all the time

I was 16 with the bullet, representing the 619

But these fools couldn't take it, they didn't want me to make it

And so they'd rather hate it because they just can't fade it

Gang related, situated, now I'm back

These putos talking smack, but I kind of like that in a way

And one day I might say they're the ones who helped me do this

Had it in me all the time and I knew this, I'm still foolish

Fools are clueless to what I can do with my ability

Thought of myself as a cholo not a real MC

So I did what I did and I'm so glad that I did it

Because it put some chips in my pocket when I'm finished

Using words like simon and leva

People try to put me down but end up floating down the river

See I told you twice before, but I'll say it one more time

You do your thing holmes, but I'ma do mine

(Lil' Rob)

And basically that's what I think

All these fucking fools can talk all the fucking shit about me

Cuz I could give a fuck, you know what I mean

This proves I'm above their level, you know

Look at all these rumors, started by jealous people Look at all these rumors, started by jealous people

(Steve Austin)

So Shadow, I understand you're having similar problems to those of Lil' Rob Is there anything you'd like to say to them player-haters? And if so, what would it be?

(Mr. Shadow)

Man I gotta give it up to those punk who try and diss me

Talking mad shit, but they miss me, remenice me

Because they used to talk head about my rhymes

And when they heard me on the radio they request it till I die

And I bust at it and I love you yapping lips

Cuz it makes me rap my rolas and my music, stack my chips

This is Shadow the crazy vato them fools want to battle

Then they end up on the gravel when they act like hoes and tattle

Now why would you want part of this truthfulness

Don't get caught up in the mix

Cuz I hate them phony putos dippin all up in my business

Ese gotta hit the street for all them fools that player-hate

Cuz ain't no bunch of chavalas stopping me from making bank

I need to take it to make it, like laws I break it unfaded

I'll be remaining like Satan, I'm serving hate to those who perpertrating

(Mr. Shadow)

That's pretty much how I feel

So I tell them haters you can only witness what you see

Not the things you hear

Remember that

Look at all these rumors, started by jealous people Look at all these rumors, started by jealous people

(Steve Austin)

Since we're talking about rumors

I heard Lil' Rob and Shadow weren't always the best of friends

So Shadow can you clear that up for us and tell us what's really going on?

(Mr. Shadow)

Simon we had some problems but like adults we had to squash it

We formed the Mayhem Click (Why?) cuz everybody wants it

The badest motherfuckers together no one's ever gonna intimidate us

Just imitate us, player-hate us

Don't bother anylising anything we do

Cuz the shit we kick is tight and you know that this is true

Mr. Shadow and Lil' Rob making heads bob and it don't stop

Cuz we're bound to keep on flowing till you see our caskets drop

(Lil' Rob)

It's that one little cholo back before I go

Just thought I'd let you know that you can never stop my flow

So I suggest you put that shit to rest, quit talking all that mess

You're just talking about the best and you're just wasting your breath

As I sit here, thinking never thought it would be you

The city that I represent talking all that shit

See cuz all we do is kick it and mind my our business

Lil' Rob and Mr. Shadow (scratching fools off the bitch list)

(Mr. Shadow)

So now you know where we're coming from

And with that, it concludes our story for today

I hope you motherfuckers learned your leason

And learned how to keep your fucking trap shut

And quit spreading rumors that aren't true

Cuz that shit be getting motherfuckers in trouble

And believe me you don't want part of that

You don't want none of this Mayhem Click

And we're out
