

Lil Skies, Breathe

i can't sleep /2x
your love helps me breathe

i can't sleep
whne I wake up
want you next to me
don't give a fuck
what people think

plug just hit my phone he said the pack is on th eway said I would stop smoking wthen I take one to the face I am a lonely stoner but for her I made a change I don't want somebody who gon' put me through the pain when the rain stops pouring everything comes our girl.
you're way too gorgeous to be stuck in the house I would give you everything fuck what he talkin' about you know you not my number two girl, you know you my boo, girl
