

Lili Haydn, Faithful One

Written by Lili Haydn & Jeffrey Connor

There's no greater pain, the only thing I know there's no great pain than to lose your little girl She walks alone in midnight hour her baby's gone to a higher power her faith is strong, her heart betroved her song intones the myth of Job There's no great pain, baby's gone away
She offered me her heart, no end to her sorrow
Where is God oh faithful one In struggle lies evolution
Where is God oh faithful one He's all you have he's what you've become
