Lilix, Because

here we are, it's but another little fight They want you to be the only one in sight Don't just make believe that you really care We know honestly, you still ask

Why you're calling Why you're falling Why you're crawling and we're not stalling

You always call about nothing at all It's all because the way it was, you don't know You always call about nothing at all It's all because the way it was, you don't know

All the time complaints come only from you And we try to say there's nothing more we can do Blaming it on me 'cause you're never right Don't take it from me, we all know

Hey you over there Criticizing me I don't really care what you think of me You don't know you'll always be the Queen of bad news who tries to confuse You'll always lose I know

You always call nothing at all You always call nothing at all
