

Lillix, Because

Here we are, it's but another little fight
They want you to be the only one in sight
Don't just make believe that you really care
We know honestly, you still ask

Why you're calling
Why you're falling
Why you're crawling and we're not stalling

You always call about nothing at all
It's all because the way it was, you don't know
You always call about nothing at all
It's all because the way it was, you don't know

All the time complaints come only from you
And we try to say there's nothing more we can do
Blaming it on me 'cause you're never right
Don't take it from me, we all know

Why you're calling
Why you're falling
Why you're crawling and we're not stalling

You always call about nothing at all
It's all because the way it was, you don't know
You always call about nothing at all
It's all because the way it was

Hey you over there
Criticizing me
I don't really care what you think of me
You don't know you'll always be the Queen of bad news who tries to confuse
You'll always lose I know

You always call nothing at all
You always call nothing at all
