

Lillix, I Always Get What I Want

Every now and then we all want somethin even if theres no way of gettin it if i stomp my feet quick that maybe be a way around could i get myself around it get me what i want

everything that i've got
so give me what i want
cause im a big shot

dont wanna always have to be so nice dont wanna hear u say well thats just life ill join u out when i open my mouth and make my way around it i always make my way around it

i always get what i want u dont wanna see me when i dont get what i want thats not what u want im not about to take no for an answer no if i tell u i cant im still ganna go i did it by my self and i still i found my way around it

i dont get what i want thats not what u want

its not to lovely it can start get ugly it really bugs me if i dont get my way

everything that i've got so give me what i want cause im a big shot

i always get what i want u dont wanna see me when i dont get what
