

Lillix, Promises

It's been another day, thinking what could have been
It gets so hard
But it's not what it seems, what I want it to be
Did I try too hard?

And I hope for something much more
Just before this, you'll have to

(Chorus)
Promise we won't fall apart
Promise this right from the start
Promise on heaven that you won't make believe
Yeah yeah yeah promise me

I don't understand what I did wrong
When the problem was you
What do I say when everything is over
Forget about you

And I hope for something much more
Just before this, you'll have to

Promise we won't fall apart
Promise this right from the start
Promise on heaven that you won't make believe
Yeah yeah yeah promise me

What will tomorrow bring, I'm reciting the truth
It gets so hard
But it's just a day, when everything went wrong
Relying on you
Thinking why you lied
Searching, never find
Right now as I say
You'll have to

Promise we won't fall apart
Promise this right from the start
Promise on heaven that you won't make believe
Yeah yeah yeah promise we won't fall apart
Promise this right from the start
Promise on heaven that you won't make believe
Yeah yeah yeah
Promise me..ooohh
Promise me..
