Lillix, Sick

I'm never going to be what you want to see Always got to be me and free Right or wrong, you'll be gone

Well I've heard it all before, and I'm tired of the lies I've tried I won't compromise You're a thousand miles away, draining under my flooded veins Take away the strain

I don't think that you know I'm about to let you go Before I put you away One more thing I've got to say

I'm not sorry, and I don't want to worry
I'm sick of you again and I think you know
I'm not sorry, and I don't want to worry
Of falling behind, don't want to worry and cry again
And I just want to say
Stop, go on

I have thrown it all away, reaching over a cloudy day And I'm on my way Cast my shadows all aside, creeping over into the sky Shining brighter I feel alive

I don't think that you know I'm about to let you go Before I put you away One more thing I've got to say

I'm not sorry, and I don't want to worry
I'm sick of you again and I think you know
I'm not sorry, and I don't want to worry
Of falling behind, don't want to worry and cry again
And I just want to say
Stop, go on

I'm never going to be what you want to see Always go to to be me you're free Carry on, run along Frustrated by you, typical what you do I'm tired and through, renew Living on with you gone

I don't think that you know I'm about to let you go Before I put you away One more thing I've got to say

I'm not sorry, and I don't want to worry
I'm sick of you again and I think you know
I'm not sorry, and I don't want to worry
Of falling behind, don't want to worry and cry again
And I just want to say

I'm not sorry, and I don't want to worry Of falling behind, don't want to worry and cry again And I just want to say Stop, go on

stop, go on

I'm never going to be what you want to see

Always go to to be me you're free Living On, With you gone
