

Limahl, Cheatin

How can you stand and say
You still love me
I've been watching you baby
Watching you try to deceive me
You've been telling me lies
I can't it any more
I caught you cheatin
I wasn't cheatin baby
I saw you cheatin
You know I caught you cheatin
Yes young lady you've been cheatin me
I am going to wipe
That smile off your face
In your absence you gave me no choice
You have been replaced
Told me nothing but lies
I can't take in anymore
I caught you cheatin
I wasn't cheatin baby....
I was working late
Tell me who do you thing that you're foolin
Goodbye
I caught you cheatin
I wasn't cheatin baby...
