

Limahl, Love In Your Eyes

I feel a presence in the air
Of something special, something rare

CHORUS

Love in your eyes is the reason why
Holding the secret a certain prize
Love in your eyes is the flame
That makes me feel so warm inside
Were silent wishes to be heard
It would express that single word

CHORUS

It suddenly takes you by the hand
And leads you through the promised land
Is this really happening to me and you
A thousand words could not describe
This precious way I feel alive

CHORUS

Build your love on a strong foundation
And you will feel the sweet sensation
