

Limahl, Tell me why

Our wedding day was is the year we're met
18 year ago
And soon enough with children we were blessed
Made a happy home
But now we talked divorce
And lawyers in the court
Have beraking a familly in two
God only knows
What's happen to me and you
Tell me why
Do we fight each other
Why
Can't we rediscover
All of the good things
Beeing in love brings
The best feeling in life
Tell we why
Are we separated
Why
Don't we contemplate
Love and devotion a little emotion
Someone please, won't you tell me why?
I think about the tears of joy we cried
In the church that day
I now pronounce that you are man and wife
The preacher said
But now we say divorce
And lawyers in the courts
Are locked in our familly dispute
God only knows
What will happen to me and you
Tell me why...
