

Limbeck, Julia

Somedays I'm on the 8.
But sometimes I'm on the 22, in rush hour traffic.
I never thought I'd fall apart.
I hate sitting on the 22.
I got a shrink that lives near second street.

Julia is so smart. I'm annually reminded.
Yeah Julia is so smart. I'm annually reminded.
Yeah Julia is so smart. She used to be a goth kid.
Last week was like a day.
Time turned fragile when I turned 22.
This whole season's been a working weekend.
That's it so far. I heard JCR's moving up north.
A few years ago she came from grass valley.

When everyone met, everything was different.
We all got rides cause no one had their license.
We all got rides, now she's the only one on time.
