

Limbeck, Silver Things

Silver things, they've never been good to me.
Oh silver please, you know you've never been good to me.
And I could see, I'm understanding.
And it's just I didn't want to travel alone that much.

Simple things, they tend to mean a lot to me.
And Busy? Please, you know some people are swamped.
Those little things, yeah you should pay attention.
Cuz busy? Please, Some people are swamped!

Tell me where the start is.
You can tell me where you heart is.
Tell me where you heart is, but don't say nothing.

It's not for me, and I'm understanding.
So speak up please, I don't want to be a stranger in the golden state.
It's just I didn't want to travel alone that much.
I didn't want to come back home and be alone.
