

Limp, Decision

It's my decision
Can't take it away
I'll have it my way
I'll make my own mistakes
Why don't you listen?
Your mind is your voice
Your heart is your choice
It's pretty hard to ignore
And you do...
Totally blind and you choose, wrecklessly
I approve, of nothing i've ever seen you
Try to do...
Your decision has taken it's toll
And you're on a roll
Inactuality, fucked up condition
The state of your life
Summed up in a lie
It's pretty hard to ignore
And you do...
Totally blind and you choose, wrecklessly
I approve of nothing i've ever seen you
Try to do...
Make up your mind
Make up your mind
Black or white
Right or wrong
Make up your mind
Stay or go
I don't know
It's about time
By now your vision
Is to be desired
And i'm uninspired
With whats in front of me
It's our condition
To stand by your word
Listen and learn
While leaving nothing ignored
But you do...
Totally blind and you choose, wrecklessly
I approve, of nothing i've ever seen you
Try to do...
