

Limp, Unreal

I'd be lying if I tried to tell you I'm grounded while asleep at the wheel
I'm looking tired so don't try to wake me
I'm living and I'm finally the hero

My voice is thunder
My spine is steel
It's my dominion
All this...this is real

Time and time again I reach my limit
Dog-tired and I can't admit it
The pressure's building and I'm sure to blow it
Take cover I'm going under

My voice is thunder
My spine is steel
It's my dominion
All this...this is real

Nothing can hold me
No one will stop me
I'm living boldly
All this...this is real

Got it figured out

Here I go again
I reached the limit
Got tired and I won't admit it pressure's building
I'm gonna blow it
Take cover
