

Lina, Piotr Zalewski, Leaving Wonderland

Dark, leaden skies
They say "hope it never dies"
All the wounds
Time will mend
I'm leaving wonderland

Ran in the rain
I Got closer to the pain
All that Joy I pretend
I'm leaving wonderland
The world remains the same
Cannot move through all the shame
No one there to hold my hand
I'm leaving wonderland

Listen to the story
Can you feel my worries
Do not expect you'll understand
Tired of fighting myself
Can't take all the changes
Now's the time to fade away

Sun sets on my shoulders
Trying to find some purpose
Tomorrow's only a mystery
With all the weight on my mind
I found a way to get by
And regain my liberty

Scared when I see
All the faces around me
Who's a foe, who's a friend
I'm leaving wonderland

All remains the same
Some of them still play the game
I got rights to defend
I'm leaving wonderland

Dark, sullen night
All the hope already died
Here my road comes to an end
I'm leaving wonderland
