

Lincoln Hawk, Everytime

Every time you walk away or run away
You take a piece of me with you there
Oh it seems like Im walking right to your door
With my hearts still resting, looking for something more
Are you ever going to see everything you mean to me?
Im trying very hard to believe
Nothing feels right when Im left here on my own
Left last night
It seemed like I waited too long
Are you going to ever see everything you mean to me?
Im trying very hard to believe
Come back to me
You smile and you make my life complete
