

Lind Espen, Lucky For You

Once in a while
When Im sleeping
My horses are wild
And Im weeping
Just like a child
I wake up dreaming that Ive been loved
Nights are in blue
And castillian
Thinking of you
Senses reeling
Diving into
This illusion that I have been loved
Lucky for you
You know what to do
When somebody hurts you
Somebody enters your life then disappears
Leaves you in tears
Stirs up your fears
If you have a clue
About what to do
Then thats lucky for you
Still lucky for me
Youre amazing
You made me see
Sparks come blazing
I was lucky to be
Made to feel like I had been loved
Lucky for you
You know what to do
When somebody hurts you
Somebody enters your life then disappears
Leaves you in tears
Stirs up your fears
If you have a clue
About what to do
Then thats lucky for you
I didnt think you would sacrifice
The love I made you receive
Id pay a grand for some paradise
But Im just too scared to believe
