

Linda Davis, I Wanna Remember This

(Jennifer Kimball/Annie Roboff)

It's the kind of night that dreams are made of.
Not a cloud in the sky and the full moon above.
I could swear the stars have all been aligned.
To be leading to this moment in time.

Summer winds breathing down our necks.

It's too early to go home yet.

I lay my head down on your chest.

Our hearts are pounding together.

Won't ever be to last forever.

Hold me until we find a way of making time stand still.

Don't waste one kiss.

Oh, I wanna remember this.

Oh, I wanna remember this.

As we lie here in the soft and quiet.

I want to take this night and memorize it.

Love can be here today and gone tomorrow.

This could be all we get for all that we know.

Feel your touch upon my skin.

Don't ever wanna leave the space we're in

Or forget the look on your face just then.

Let's stay lost in the shadows.

I don't ever want to let you go.

So...

Hold me until we find a way of making time stand still.

Don't waste one kiss.

Oh, I wanna remember this.

Oh, I wanna remember this.

Long as I have had to wait.

I don't want this night to fade.

Hold me until we find a way of making time stand still.

Don't waste one kiss.

Oh, I wanna remember this.

Oh, I wanna remember this.

Losing myself in your kiss.

No it doesn't get better than this.

Oh, I wanna remember this.

Oh, I wanna remember this.
