

Linda Davis, Walk Away

(Steven Dale Jones/Carolyn Dawn Johnson)

Here we are on different sides of the fence
These angry words just dont make any sense
It doesnt really matter, whose right or wrong
Id rather hold you than argue all night long
Im gonna walk out that door
And walk right back in
Straight to your arms, start all over again
Cause you and I know our loves bigger than this
Lets talk about it, after a kiss
Funny how it seems we hurt the ones we love
Tell me now that you agree weve said enough
Baby, we were laughing an hour ago
Can we back up and make up and let it go
Im gonna walk out that door
And walk right back in
Straight to your arms, start all over again
Cause you and I know our loves bigger than this
Lets talk about it, after a kiss
It doesnt take much to turn this around
If we both know our hearts are in it
Baby, your touch has never let me down
So wait right here just a minute
Im gonna walk out that door
And walk right back in
Straight to your arms, start all over again
Cause you and I know our loves bigger than this
Lets talk about it, after a kiss
