Linda Davis, Walk Away

(Steven Dale Jones/Carolyn Dawn Johnson) Here we are on different sides of the fence These angry words just dont make any sense It doesn't really matter, whose right or wrong Id rather hold you than argue all night long Im gonna walk out that door And walk right back in Straight to your arms, start all over again Cause you and I know our loves bigger than this Lets talk about it, after a kiss Funny how it seems we hurt the ones we love Tell me now that you agree weve said enough Baby, we were laughing an hour ago Can we back up and make up and let it go Im gonna walk out that door And walk right back in Straight to your arms, start all over again Cause you and I know our loves bigger than this Lets talk about it, after a kiss It doesnt take much to turn this around If we both know our hearts are in it Baby, your touch has never let me down So wait right here just a minute Im gonna walk out that door And walk right back in Straight to your arms, start all over again Cause you and I know our loves bigger than this Lets talk about it, after a kiss