

Linda Perry, In My Dreams

In my daydreams everything's worthwhile
In my daydreams I ran a thousand miles
And everybody worshiped me

In my daydreams
Hate meant just to smile
And the pain never bothered me

I want everything
Everything I want
There's no room to turn me upside down

In my daydreams
I built my own empire
With no color and no creed

In my day dreams
I'm like a bird in flight
I'm I getting much too deep?

I want everything
Everything I want
There's no room to turn me
Upside down

I want everything, everything I want
Yeah, yeah
There's no time to turn me upside down.

I want everything, Everything I want
There's no room to turn me upside down

I want everything
Everything I want
Yeah, yeah
There's no room to turn me upside
Yeah yeah yeah, ohh...

In my daydreams
I ran a thousand miles
And everybody worshiped me
