

Linda Perry, So It Goes

So it goes
So it shows
So it knows
To show you how it goes
What I feel
What I'm feeling
All I feel is
Loving you

Shall I go
Do you know
Where to go
Into you know to show
What you feel
What you are feeling
All you feel is
Loving me

I want you to rise
Above the tides
I see in your eyes
That love will bites
Your love and cries for more love
You feel so much pain
That is unreal
You feel so much pain
That's how you feel
But it is not just your pain

Do you know
How to go
And when to show
You know the way to go
All my life
All my strife is
All cried life is
Loving you

I want you to rise
I see in your eyes
That love will bites
Your love and cries for more love
You feel so much pain
That is unreal
You feel so much pain
That's how you feel
But it is not just your pain

So it goes
So it shows
So it knows
To show you how it goes
What I feel
What I'm feeling
All I feel is
Loving you
