

Linda Perry, Too Deep

Sun

Warm me while I sleep

Give me comfort and a head full of dreams

Lift

Me to where you are

Let me lay upon your bright yellow star

The sound

The pulsing in my ear

Is the pressure that I constantly hear

I'm just a dreamer

I can't wake from sleep

I am midflyer

But I'm getting too deep

Lost

In a world that so arranged

Common people just a link in a chain

Stop

So much anger touches me

If I'm happy it still won't set me free

I'm just a dreamer

I can't wake from sleep

I am midflyer

But I'm getting too deep

I'm just a dreamer

I can't wake from sleep

I am midflyer

Am I getting too deep?
