

Linda Ronstadt, The Charreada

How very pretty is this fiesta
The charro fiesta, fiesta in the sun

Where the valiant charros
Evoke such feeling with their songs

The festive grand entry
Smacks of tradition and the furrows of the earth

It resembles the action of the bullfight
So admired in my nation

Pretty is the grand entry and how great its excitement
I want to ride the bull
So that my love can see me.
