

Linda Sundblad, Lose you

Pounding heart on a Saturday night sneaking peeks down my velvet skirt Cutie talk not to witty or bright but your beauty was the kind that could hurt
I could tell from the look in your eyes
I was triggering your insanity
I just knew I could see it that I would lose you

That I will lose u

That I will lose you right from the start

That I will lose u

That I will lose you right from the start

Blushing cheeks and kisses so sweet and that song on the radio

Getting wet from the steam and the heat

I was dripping from my head to my feet made a stop at the end of the road closed my eyes took a final breath

Right there and then I just knew it

that I would lose you

That I will lose u

That I will lose you right from the start

That I will lose u

That I will lose you right from the start

That I will lose u

Flowers and the seeds are flying

Mama come get me I'm dying

Am I in heaven Ooh

Am I in heaven Ooh

Am I in heaven Ooh

Am I in heaven Ooh

That I will lose u

That I will lose you right from the start

That I will lose u

That I will lose you right from the start

That I will lose u

That I will lose u

That I will lose you right from the start

That I will lose you right from the start

That I will lose u
