

Lindsay Lohan, Magnet

I don't know whether I should hate it or should like it
The way you read through me I'd swear you were a psychic
I tried to not reach for the phone
But something bigger makes me call you
I don't know what to do
I'm into you.

[Chorus]
Is it gravity, chemistry, physically pullin me
What could it be boy
Cause I'm so drawn to you
Like a fool
I keep coming back, it's true
I can't stand it
You're like a magnet.

I don't know whether I should move on or move in Maybe a part of me is fine with never knowing
Cause I try to leave, but that won't work
Cause being strong just makes it worse so
What should I do? I'm torn into two

[Chorus]

[Bridge]
Oh come a little closer cause I'm loving you, loving you, loving you
Oh come a little closer cause I'm missing you, missing you, missing you
Oh come a little closer cause I'm loving you, loving you, loving you

[Chorus]
