

Lindsay Lohan, My Innocence

I was born a fighter
I was born on a rainy day
I've had my share of pain
But you've missed most of that
So many other things you had to do
You looked after you
Do you remember what u did
Do you know just what you've missed?
Do you care about what I have to say?

You took my innocence away and never had a chance to
You broke me in with your mistakes and thanks for the break through
But you won't bring me down
I always come around
You took my innocence away but the best of me stayed

It could be your blood running through all my veins
That ties me to your fate
If I could just close my eyes
I'd blackout all the reasons why
We're still in this place
What you want is what you got
You should have tried to make it stop
I guess you couldn't find a way to let me learn

You took my innocence away and never had a chance to
You broke me in with your mistakes and thanks for the break through
But you won't bring me down
I always come around
You took my innocence away but the best of me stayed

Loneliness has filled my soul
And it keeps inside
It takes control
And I don't know how to begin giving up on everything

My innocence,
You took my innocence away

You took my innocence away and never had a chance to
You broke me in with your mistakes and thanks for the break through
But you won't bring me down
I always come around
You took my innocence away but the best of me stayed

The best of me stayed
But the best of me stayed
Oh, but the best of me stayed
