

Lindsay Robins, Shooting Star

Lying on the ground, staring at the sky
I dont see nothing, trying to be blind
I just see fire, I see the flame
I see the future and it wont change
A single thing Ill say, a single thing I do, I do
Watch me burn like a shooting star
You never thought Id get this far
Turn to dust in the atmosphere
Dont you blink, I might disappear
Like a shooting star
Like a shooting star
I wear a heavy cross around my neck
Dragging me down breaking my back
Wanna stand so tall, fly to the moon
I got a sinking feeling its gonna end soon
No matter what Ill say, no matter what I do, I do, I do, I
Watch me burn like a shooting star
You never thought Id get this far
Turn to dust in the atmosphere
Dont you blink, I might disappear
Like a shooting star, watch me disappear
Like a shooting star, watch me disappear
Watch me disappear, watch me disappear
Watch me burn like a shooting star
You never thought Id get this far
Turn to dust in the atmosphere
Dont you blink, I might disappear
Watch me burn like a shooting star
You never thought Id get this far
Turn to dust in the atmosphere
Dont you blink, I might disappear
Like a shooting (star)
Like a shooting (star)
Like a shooting (star)
Like a shooting
