

Lindsey Stirling, The Upside (feat. Elle King)

the dark side of the Moon all these new feeling got me so confused I wanna cut it loose not sure that I can do this without you now I am lost and I am broken dripping like the ocean heart's been cut wide open changing and I know it

the other side of you that's what I've been trying to get used to but you know that I'm holding on and I am upside down on my way to upside down

I am on my way
I am on my way
I don't know if I'm right side up
I am inside out but I won't give up
I am on my way
I am on my way
to the upside down

been climbing up these walls there's no one left to catch me if I fall it's just me and my thoughts I get so low but then the upside comes

now I am lost and I am broken
changing and I know it

on my way to upside down
I am on my way
I am on my way
I don't know if I'm right side up
I am inside out but I won't give up
I am on my way
I am on my way
to the upside down
