

Linkin Park, IGYEIH

I give you everything I have

I'm cracking and opened wide
Dying for one drop
Your remedies hypnotize
I never say stop

And the clock keeps ticking / the rules aren't written
I'm trying to remember how to make up my mind
The clock keeps ticking / the rules aren't written
Forgotten doesn't mean that it's forgiven this time

I give you everything I have
All you give me is your ugliness
You're not as honest as you act
Just a devil with a god complex
I'm not the enemy
You make me out to be
And I'm so tired of this
Wishful thinking
Drowning, sinking
I give you everything I have

I write all the memories down
All over my skin
Hoping it'll snap me out
When this happens again

And the clock keeps ticking / the rules aren't written
I'm trying to remember how to make up my mind
The clock keeps ticking / the rules aren't written
Forgotten doesn't mean that it's forgiven this time

I give you everything I have
All you give me is your ugliness
You're not as honest as you act
Just a devil with a god complex
I'm not the enemy
You make me out to be
And I'm so tired of this
Wishful thinking
Drowning, sinking
I give you everything I have

From now on I don't need you
From now on got amnesia
