

Lion's Share, Searching For Answers

Surrounded by silence, pictures within my mind standing on the line, standing on the borderline
to insanity

I hear the sound of my heart drowning all my thoughts and i can't see things clear anymore
clouding my mind

Searching for answers, out of control tell me what's gone wrong searching for a sign, "cause i'm losing control feel i'm letting go

Lost in a time and place, can't seem to comprehend where can i find, where can i find the answers for the questions i have

world is spinning around and i feel so alone
standing at the crossroads don't you know i'm
