

Lion's Share, Unholy Rites

the darkness comes but slowly the night is still too young midnight ain't that far away summon everyone hooded men of evil pay tribute to his name can you hear us, are you with us and the devil is to blame they're crying out in ecstasy save our souls from tonight and into infinity unholy rites! what will become of us unholy rites! what have they done unholy rites! you know there's no place

i'm trapped within a nightmare there's nothing i can do darkness is surrounding me help me to pull through save me from the evil that's raging land and sea can you hear me, are you with me lord i'm striving to break free they're crying out in ecstasy save our souls from tonight and into infinity
