

Lionel Richie, Dancong On The Ceiling

Tryin to figure out just where you are
You tried to play the game of love, didnt get too far
You told yourself youd be nobodys fool
You want a good reason why love is so cruel, baby
Oh, oh, round and round
Loves got you goin
Its turnin you upside down
You play the game, its so insane
Like lost and found
Loves got you spinnin all around, baby
Are you thinkin love has passed you by, oh
Do you feel so alone, sometimes you just sit and cry
Tryin to think if love was meant for you
Oh, youre startin to wonder what youre gonna do, baby
Oh, oh, round and round
Loves got you goin
Its turnin you upside down
You play the game, its so insane
Like lost and found
Loves got you spinnin all around, baby
Oh, oh, I know you need a place to be
You want someone who cares and shares
And loves you so
I want to know theres something you can do, oh
You need to realize all things can come to you
Just believe its all about your heart, baby
And youre gonna make it when youre ready to start, oh
No need to go round and round
Loves got you goin
Its turnin you upside down
You play the game, its so insane
Called lost and found
Loves got you spinnin all around, baby
Whoa, whoa, round and round
Loves got you goin
Its turnin you upside down
You play the game, its so insane
Called lost and found
Loves got you spinnin all around, baby
The world is all out there for you
It all depends on what you do
Your lifes too short for wastin time
So follow your heart and make up your mind
Round and round
Loves got you goin
Its turnin you upside down
You play the game, its so insane
Called lost and found
Loves got you spinnin all around, baby
