

Lionel Richie, Piece Of Love

Time can heal a broken heart
Oh, but does it really ease the mind
I know it's hard for you
Though you say that you're not longing for my touch
I know it pains you much

What's wrong, baby
What's on your mind
Did you leave a piece of love behind
What's wrong, baby
What is on your mind
Did you leave a piece of love behind

Night begins with calls from you
Oh, asking me if I'm alright
I'm really not sure, baby
I'm wondering if your love for me has gone away
Like I heard you say

What's wrong, baby
What's on your mind
Did you leave a piece of love behind
What's wrong, baby
What is on your mind
Did you leave a piece of love behind

It's hard to say
We've made mistakes
But when it's not over
It's best to put pride away
Two eyes should not cry the tears of regret
'cause two lips won't let go of an age old lover's lie

Oh, baby, oh, oh

What's wrong, baby
What's on your mind
Did you leave a piece of love behind
What's wrong baby
What is on your mind
Did you leave a piece of love behind

I'd do anything for you
I will give you all my heart
Did you leave a piece of love behind
Oh, did you leave your love behind
