

Lior, Autumn Flow

Oh, feels like Autumn's back so soon
I see my father turning grey under a silver moon
Don't remember when he was a young man anymore
Well that's just too long ago
Suddenly i'll be asking if you'll love me all the time
Even when diamond loses its shine

Woah woah yeah

Oh, the heaviness of loss and the weightlessness of a baby boy
The despair and the imminent joy

You know temptation only shows you one side of its face
Got to make sure you see the other before you join the rat race
Don't know why i'm so happy to take care of you
But i've learned to go with the flow and thats what the flow wants to do

So i don't need to tell you, do i my girl
That you are sunshine, you're everything good in the world
Well you know i'm thinking 'bout myself less and less
Only holler if it's S.O.S
Mmm, taking bigger steps to get to you
Happy to sit here and watch you and i grow
And bathe in this sweet Autumn Flow

You know temptation only shows you one side of it's face
Got to make sure you see the other before you join the rat race
Don't know why i'm so happy to take care of you
But i've learned to go with the flow and thats what the flow
That's what the flow wants to do
