

Liquido, Agree To Stay

You held my spine
to see me rise
now taste the silence
a brick of light reveals the day I smell that you went by I see now
agree to stay and spend the night don't be alone now
you held my hand
I slipped away
we'd sleep beneath the stars

how i hate being scared
the more i think
the more I do
still anything reminds me of you
I smell your hair
I hear your voice

I feel you
I wish we knew a place to play where no one could find us you lied to me
the other day
don't keep it all inside

how I wish I was free
the more i think
the more I do
still anything reminds me of you
I smell your hair
I hear your voice

I feel you
