

Liquido, Catch Me

Gotta get this feeling once again .
this time I'm on my own I'm here to stay .
watching colours form, minutes passing by .
why can't you ever keep me save from harm .
everything that comes around goes around .
something more than ordinary life .
turning upside down .
pulling inside out .
over the top - I'm sliding from the edge .

Catch me I'm falling down, falling down .
I'm on my way .
Catch me I'm falling down, falling down .
I'm on my way .

All is fixed so face it one more time .
in a small world that I call my own .
simple awesome notes (that's) what I want to hear .
intrusive noises never let me go .
pathetic neighbours jumping up and down .
daily sadness melted from the sun .
turning upside down .
pulling inside out .
over the top I'm sliding from the edge .

Catch me I'm falling down, falling down .
I'm on my way .
Catch me I'm falling down, falling down .
I'm on my way
