

Liquido, I'll Have It All Today

I want a candle on my cake
I want the sun to come out today
I want you by my side (Na na na na oh)

I want a place where I belong
I want a face that makes me strong and
I know quite well that
I'll have it all
I'll have it all today
Have it all today

I want some lemonade today
Want someone to go my way
I want a girl that loves me so
And I want you to sing no, no
I'm just like anybody else
I'm just the same like you
Want you tonight and every day
Want you to go my way

I'll have it all today.....
