

Liquido, The standard

I dont belong here
and youve said so
no footprints in the haze
youve heard me yellin
and youve walked on
from that empty space remember that freakshow
and it bored you
charming
with a dry eye on a lonely sunday isnt it standard now
like a faint smile
that, you say
will never matter again i dont know why i cant get you off my mind and when he wrath comes like a bullet
you better take off from herein
so burn up your matches im your witness
you say you wake up and take off and take off your synthesized game
getting closer now
i see your satellite approaches the earth isnt it standard
youve come to be so blessed and you will never worry again...
