

Lisa Bund, All That I Am

Here I am, looking at a new beginning
Trying to find my way
Your strength, your faith
Help me through my darkest hour
Will I make it through?
No matter what I'm faced with now
I know I will survive
I'm strong but i still need you by my side
All that I am
Is more than I have ever dreamed of
Am I was nothing without you
And I'll do all that I can
To make you see that I believe in me
And all that I am
I was lost thought I couldn't Face the journey you were
There to help me through
The road ahead is leading me to new Horizons when every step I take with you
You're the one that saves me now
The one that makes me see
Here and now means everything to me
All that I am
Is more than I have ever dreamed of
I was nothing without you
And I'll do all that I can
To make you see that I believe in me
And all that I am
Looking back now, I can see
I never thought I'd see this moment
All I was so blind, I can now find the inner strength in me
That now I'm flying high tonight
See it all so clear
Am that nothings stopping me succeeding now I have no fear yeah, uh
All that I am
Is more than I have ever dreamed of
I was nothing without you
And I'll do all that I can
To make you see that I believe in me
And all that I am /2x
