

Lisa Bund, In My Head

Every other day, every other day, it's all the same
But seasons change, a hard thing to say
When I look into your eyes, look into your eyes, it Feels so far
Don't know where you are, you've gone away
Get caught up in emotions when I think it through In there's nothing I can say that bring me back to you My in everything i see your face but in your world I've lost my place... yeah
You're all in my head
Don't know why I keep holding on
Can't get out of bed
I've stopped breathing since you've been gone
Those things you said, all those things you said
You're all in my head, all in my head
Do you ever think of me, ever think of me, when You're alone
I still pick up the phone
Hoping that it's you
Nothing seems to matter now that you're not here
How can thirty days feel like a year
In everything I see your face but in your
World I've lost my place.. yeah
You're all in my head
Don't know why I keep holding on
Can't get out of bed
I've stopped breathing since you've been gone
Those things you said, all those things you said
You're all in my head, all in my head
Can't believe that you're still on my mind every moment and second of time
My after all I've been through I'd still give up my world for you
Do anything you want me to...
You're all in my head
Don't know why I keep holding on
Can't get out of bed
I've stopped breathing since you've been gone
Those things you said, all those things you said
You're all in my head, all in my head /2x
